

Product update notification: TCKIT now integrates LTCLHP illuminators

July 4th 2014

Dear Valued Customer,

Starting July 17th 2014 TCKIT case will integrate new LTCLHP036-G telecentric illuminator instead of LTCL036-G. Opto Engineering TCKIT case includes a selection of some of the most commonly used telecentric optics in measurement applications.

New LTCLHP illuminator offers many advantages over the old series, including:

- improved illumination stability
 - more precise light intensity tuning and
 - easy LED source replacement
- Orders received starting from 17/06/2014 will receive TCKIT with the new illuminator (LTCLHP036-G)
 - Orders received until 16/07/2014 will receive TCKIT with the old illuminator (LTCL036-G)
