Discontinued product notification: CBETH003 cable

Dear Valued Customer,

Due to the introduction of the new RT-A72-0418-05, the CBETH003 will be discontinued. This change is due to some important upgrades:

- Increased mechanical strength
- Improved bending performance
- Improved suitability for M12 connector applications
- Limited increase in sheath outer diameter

The CBETH003 will be discontinued on March 1, 2024: after this date it will no longer be available and can no longer be ordered. As mentioned above, however, the product will be replaced by the RT-A72-0418-05.
